STANFORD, KY., FRIDAY, MARCH 6, 1908.

NO. 2.

Senator W. O. Bradley.

Mr. John D. Wakefield has this to say about Senator Bradley in the Cincinnati Enquirer:

The new Senator is an engine of force, magnetism, fight and oratory. Every morning before the sun has crept over the tops of the buildings on the East side of Fourth avenue, and the main thoroughfare of the city is almost enveloped in smoke and fog, a little, chubby, rosy-cheeked man will be seen walking briskly in the avenue. His shoes never shine, and if one will take the trouble to observe closely the chances are that the shoes will be found somewhat muddy. His trousers bag at the knees and show that they never had a crease in them since they were purchased. A little light overcoat, badly crumpled, and perhaps torn in a place or two, a soft white hat, a relic of numerous political campaigns, and black coat and vest and a little black string tie that has seen too much service and is beginning to frazzle at the ends, convince the observer that the little chubby man does not care much about his personal appearance. Both overcoat pockets are always filled to the bursting point with newspapers, law briefs and sometimes small books. Those to whom the little man is a familiar figure know that he does not shave every day, and sometimes his beard is rather long. A stogie is nearly always in the corner of his mouth, but occasionally he substitutes a little short pipe for the stogie. One who did not know him would never be attracted by his appearance until he got a good look into his luminous brown eyes or heard him speak. The eyes show the man's great mentality, and his voice, which is as clear as a bell, would convince anyone of his ability as an orator. This little man is the United States Senator-elect from Kentucky.

IN MEMORIAM.

In memory of little Walter Charles Rice, who died Dec. 19, 1907, at Lebanon Junction:

I shine in the light of God,
His likeness stamps my brow,
Through the shadow of death my father treads

And I reign in glory now.
No breaking heart is here,
No keen and thrilling pain,
No wasted cheek where the frequent tear

Hath called and left its stain.
I have found the joy of heaven
I am one of the angel band,
To my head a crown is given,
A harp is in my hand.
I have learned the song they sing,
Whom Jesus hath made free
And the glorious walls of heaven still ring
With my new-born melody.

No sin, no grief, no pain,
Safe in my happy home,
My fears all fled, my doubts all slain,
My hour of triumph come.
O friends of my mortal years,
The truest and the true,
You're walking still in the vale of tears,
But I wait to welcome you.

Do I forget, Oh no,
For memory's golden chain
Doth bind my heart to the hearts below
Till they meet and touch again.
Each link is strong and bright
And love's electric flame
Flows down like a river of light
To the world from whence I came.

Do you mourn when another star
Shines out from the glittering sky,
Do you weep when the noise of war
And the rage of conflict die?
Then why should your tears roll down
And your hearts with grief be riven
For another gem is in the Savior's crown,
And another soul in heaven.

A FRIEND.

Best Healer in the World.

Rev. F. Starbird, of East Raymond, Maine says: "I have used Bucklen's Arnica Salve for several years, on my old army wound, and other obstinate sores, and find it the best healer in the world. I use it too with great success in my veterinary business." Price 25c. at Penny's Drug Store.

Unnerved by the news of his brother's death in a hospital Charles Arner, a railroad conductor, fell at Mahanoy City, Pa., as he was about to board a train and was killed. His brother, Henry, also a conductor, was killed in the same way the day previous.

The Lucky Quarter

Is the one you pay out for a box of Dr. King's New Life Pills. They bring you the health that's more precious than jewels. Try them for headache, biliousness, constipation and malaria. If they disappoint you the price will be cheerfully refunded at Penny's Drug Store.

Dr. Reuben Samuels, aged 82, stepfather of Frank and Jesse James, died at the Missouri Hospital for the Insane at St. Joseph.

Billy Sunday's Meeting.

DOWNES, ILL., March 2, 1908.—The great revivalist, Billy Sunday, has just closed a six weeks' meeting in Bloomington, Ill. It was the most wonderful meeting he has ever held, about 7,000 people being converted. The tabernacle that was erected for this meeting held 6,000 people and was filled to overflowing a great many times. At his most popular lecture on "Amusements," the building was packed by 5 o'clock and 5,000 tickets were given to those who could not get in and he delivered the sermon again to those holding tickets. He had more converts from this sermon than from any other, unless it was at the men's meeting. The most remarkable feature about the meeting is that there were more men converts than women. The evangelist made the men understand that religion was for them as well as for women. The first two weeks of his revival made one think it was a show and many expressed the determination not to go to hear him again; but he had magnetic power. The last four weeks he got down to business and I never saw as much work done; it seemed to be no trouble to approach one on the subject of religion. The depot agent here would order extra cars for the occasion and they would always be filled. All the small towns in the county would attend the meetings. After the revival closed the churches in and around Bloomington held revivals in order to gather in the converts. The First Christian church of Bloomington had 500 or more additions and other churches had as many. As this is my denomination I feel proud of the number. Mr. Sunday had the largest sum of money given him in Bloomington that he ever received at any revival ($8,000) but he preached in all the public places and to all the people. He would go to the machine shops, factories and schools and preach and at the court house each day at 1 o'clock he would hold services. The Sunday schools have more than doubled in attendance. The Presbyterians and Methodists have had glorious meetings here. A great many old men were converted.

Bloomington has 80 saloons, but we think from the results of the meeting that the saloons will soon be a thing of the past. The question, how to get men interested in church affairs, has frequently been discussed. If we had an evangelist in every State like Rev. Sunday the question would soon be settled. He is now holding a meeting in Decatur and they are working hard to excel Bloomington. The Decatur Herald gives his sermons in full and it would pay any one to take the paper during the revival. We sent Mrs. J. N. Cash the Bloomington papers during the revival there and she wrote that she could hardly wait for the paper each day. Respectfully,

MRS. H. D. MCCLURE.

Given Up To Die.

B. Spiegel, 1204 N. Virginia, St., Evansville, Ind., writes: "For over five years I was troubled with kidney and bladder affections which caused me much pain and worry. I lost flesh and was all run down, and a year ago had to abandon work entirely. I had three of the best physicians who did me no good and I was practically given up to die. Foley's Kidney Cure was recommended and the first bottle gave me great relief, and after taking the second bottle I was entirely cured." Why not let it help you? Penny's Drug Store.

W. B. Smith, the former Louisville banker, who was convicted at Murphysboro, Ill., of defrauding a bank, has been denied a new trial and has announced a willingness to begin serving his sentence. James S. Nail, who was convicted with Smith, has appealed his case.

Notice To Our Customers

We are pleased to announce that Foley's Honey and Tar for coughs, colds and lung trouble is not affected by the National Pure Food and Drug law as it contains no opiates or other harmful drugs, and we recommend it as a safe remedy for children and adults. Penny's Drug Store.

"See here," said the proprietor, "you seem to be driving away trade. Are you polite?" "Polite! I'm effusive," declared the new clerk. "Every man who comes in I call brother, professor or beau."

This is Worth Remembering. Whenever you have a cough or cold, just remember that Foley's Honey and Tar will cure it. Do not risk your health by taking any but the genuine. It is in a yellow package. Penny's Drug Store.

NEWS NOTES.

Willis Jennings, a paralytic, succeeded in his fourth attempt at suicide at Paducah.

Ambassador Creel's bank at Chihuahua, Mex., was robbed of $295,000 in Mexican money.

James Oliver, the millionaire plow manufacturer, died after a long illness at his home at South Bend, Ind.

Woodson Smith, aged 60 years, who was taken to jail at Cleveland badly frozen, had on 14 suits of underwear.

Thomas B. Wanamaker, of Philadelphia, a son of former Postmaster General John Wanamaker, died suddenly in Liverpool.

Senator A. J. Oliver, of Allen county, has announced his candidacy for Congressman from the Third District to succeed Dr. A. D. James.

A man at Fort Scott, Kas., answering an advertisement for a cook, wrote that he was willing to wear a woman's clothes and take a female name in order to get the job.

Over 140 school children lost their lives in a fire which destroyed the three story brick school building on Collamer avenue, in Collinwood, a suburb, just outside the city limits of Cleveland, O.

Thousands of men and women stood for hours in the rain, unable on account of the crowds to enter the church wherein the funeral of Father Leo Heinrichs, of Denver, was held in Paterson, N. J.

George M. Shipley, Chief of the Chicago police department, shot and killed an anarchist who invaded his home, wounded the Chief, shot the official's son, Harry, in the lung, and wounded the family coachman, James Foley.

Indictments charging the St. Louis and San Francisco railroad with granting rebates and the Chapman & Dewey Lumber Co., of Kansas City, Mo., with accepting rebates, were returned by the Federal grand jury at St. Louis.

Secretary Straus has issued an order to immigration officials to secure the co-operation of the police in an effort to rid the United States of alien anarchists and criminals who come under the provisions of the deportation act.

A full company of militia from Whitesburg reached Hopkinsville and reported to Maj. Albrecht. Their arrival was a surprise to the citizens, as no announcement of their coming had been made. It is not known whether the company will remain at Hopkinsville or will be scattered throughout the surrounding territory.

An Angus bull, valued at $500, and five Berkshire hogs, belonging to Chas. E. Marvin, who lives near Payne's Depot, Fayette county, were killed by a stroke of lightning during the storm of Sunday. The bull was in the center of a 10-acre field and the same stroke knocked a two-year-old saddle horse to the ground but did not injure the latter animal. Two of the hogs were killed 100 yards from the barn and the others in the barn. A peculiar feature was the fact that the exterior of the barn showed no effects of the lightning, although the hogs were killed inside.

MATRIMONIAL.

Henry Miracle, aged 19, and Miss Mamie Lewis, sweet 16, were married at Highland yesterday.

Miss Cornelia Harriman, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Harriman, was married to Robert Livingston Gerry, son of Commodore Elbridge T. Gerry, of New York.

A double wedding at which mother and daughter were the brides, was the unusual service which Chicago gave to the events Tuesday. The brides were Mrs. Adelia McKey, and her daughter, Miss Gertrude McKey. Mrs. McKey was married to Fielding A. Randle, and Miss McKey became the bride of Edwin A. Hearne.

A Danville dispatch says: There is a veritable Taft love feast in progress in this city to-day. All of the big fellows of the Eighth Congressional district are gathered to organize the district for Taft. Thomas L. Walker, Postmaster of Lexington, is here, and is taking quite an interest in the meeting. Walter Bennett, of Richmond; E. Horine, Nicholasville; Postmaster Hutcheson, of Lawrenceburg; Postmaster Petty, of Shelbyville, and J. F. Ransdall and J. P. Spillman, of Harrodsburg, the latter being the Postmaster, are also on hand.

No Use To Die.

"I have found out that there is no use to die of lung trouble as long as you can get Dr. King's New Discovery," says Mrs. J. P. White, of Rushboro, Pa. "I would not be alive today only for that wonderful medicine. It loosens up a cough quicker than anything else, and cures lung disease even after the case is pronounced hopeless." This most reliable remedy for coughs and colds, lagrippe, asthma, bronchitis and hoarseness, is sold under guarantee at Penny's Drug Store. 50c. and $1. Trial bottle free.

LANCASTER.

Sunday was Foreign Mission day at the Christian church.

A Saxton dance will be given by the Cotillion Club on the 13th.

Miss Ethel Dunn, one of the teachers in the Stanford Graded School, was with her mother, Mrs. W. A. Price.

Remember that when the Stomach nerves fail or weaken, Dyspepsia or Indigestion must always follow. But strengthen these same weak inside nerves with Dr. Shoop's Restorative, and then see how quickly health will again return. Weak Heart and Kidney nerves can also be strengthened with the Restorative, where Heart pains, palpitation, or Kidney weakness is found. Don't drug the Stomach, nor stimulate the Heart or Kidneys. That is wrong. Go to the cause of these ailments. Strengthen these weak inside nerves with Dr. Shoop's Restorative and get well. A simple, single test will surely tell. Penny's Drug Store.

On Dec. 19, 1907, the death angel visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Rice and took little Walter Charles, their 13 months old child. He was a wonderful child, radiantly beautiful, tenderly affectionate and intelligent beyond his months; a bright beam of sunshine in the home and an unfailing source of joy to his parents and relatives. Little Walter had croup and all that loving hands could do to relieve the little sufferer was done; but God knew best. No hopes we could cherish are to be compared with the glorious realities that are now his. The little body was laid to rest in Buffalo cemetery on Dec. 21st. Much sympathy is extended to the heart-broken parents. A FRIEND.

Tickling or dry coughs will quickly loosen when using Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. And it is so thoroughly harmless, that Dr. Shoop tells mothers to use nothing else, even for very young babies. The wholesome green leaves and tender stems of a lung healing mountainous shrub give the curative properties to Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. It calms the cough, and heals the sensitive bronchial membranes. No opium, no chloroform, nothing harsh used to injure or suppress. Demand Dr. Shoop's. Take no other. Penny's Drug Store.

Verily the way of the Federal office holder in Kentucky is hard. If he does not support Taft, Teddy will hit him with the big stick, and if he does not line up for Fairbanks, Bradley will have him "cashiered."—Frankfort Journal.
